About the Presenters

Roy Kaufmann is an attorney with over 30 years of experience in civil and criminal law and conversant in legislative as well as litigation matters. He graduated from the George Washington University Law School and has experience in both the public and private sectors.

Kirk Jensen is a partner at BuckleySandler LLP, focusing on retail and commercial financial services. Mr. Jensen has extensive experience in matters relating to the federal and state fair lending laws, consumer protection laws, unfair and deceptive trade practices, consumer privacy laws, and mortgage fraud. Mr. Jensen has particular expertise in matters related to the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, so it makes sense we asked him to be on this call, and related state laws, having represented several institutions in landmark enforcement actions.

Sasha Leonhardt is an associate with BuckleySandler LLP. Mr. Leonhardt represents financial services industry clients in a wide range of enforcement, litigation, and regulatory matters. He has represented clients in government investigations and enforcement actions related to mortgage origination, servicing, and foreclosure. He also has substantial experience advising clients on the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. Mr. Leonhardt has written and published articles on data privacy, class action litigation, white collar litigation, whistleblower lawsuits and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.
